VETERANS SENT BACK TO CAMP

Pace Is Detroit Leader
Whose Delegation
Camped In New Castle

WASHINGTON, July 20.—
John Pace, of Detroit, and two of his radical lieutenants, who attempted to lead their branch of the Bonus Expeditionary Forces to the White House today, were placed under arrest, after making several futile attempts to enter the executive grounds.

Pace and about two score of his men were accosted by Police Inspector Headley, as they marched in formation past the U. S. Treasury enroute to the White House.
Headley grappled with Pace, and after a short scuffle, Pace led his men away from the White House.

Finally Arrested
As they were making their way back to their concentration camp, Pace and the two veterans tried at each street intersection to veer toward the executive mansion, but were stopped at each attempt.

Finally in the vicinity of the State Department building Pace and his men bolted in the direction of the President's residence, and were taken into custody.

Two patrol wagons were then called and with motorcycle patrolmen,

PA NEW OBSERVES

One of Pa New's boys started for the Municipal golf course on a Butler bus last evening, and did waken up to where he was until he got out the Butler road. He had to trek across the hot dusty country road to get to his destination.

Rumors are easy things to start and hard to stop. Sometimes they started innocently enough too. Yesterday, one of Pa New's family was informed that there seemed to be some extra activity down at the Standard Steel Car plant and it looked as if some industry was getting ready to move in, as the Bell Telephone Company and P. and O.
electric men were doing some work in front of the plant and some small buildings in the rear were being torn down. An investigation resulted in the information that the power company men were merely fixing a trolley wire in front of the building, and the Bell Telephone employees were splicing a cable at that spot.

"Post Office Day" has been set apart for Tuesday, July 26, and every postmaster in the country has been asked to plan something out of the ordinary for that day. Postmaster Lake S. MacNab is laying plans here with the help of others at the office. It's a part of the Washington bicentennial festivities.

It would seem to Pa New that almost every younger lad in the city plays on a mushball team from the amount of callers who visit The News sports room for score sheets.

Did you ever invade a hotel storeroom just to look around? Per-is, as far as system and efficiency

Old Livery Falls Prey To Wreckers Clearing Ground For City's New Post Office

Workmen were swinging prying crowbars and heavy sledges today against the weather beaten frame and brick buildings that have stood for years over a corner parcel of public square land upon which the city's new post office will rise. Actual wrecking operations were under way.

B. G. Coates, resident of the west side district, whose bid for clearing the Smith property structures was accepted by the government a few days ago, was directing the scrapping task. Another workman was aiding him.

that the Smith buildings must be

Plans To Change Traffic Rule At Mercer And Moody

Mercer To Be Made Through Thoroughfare, Police
Chief Announces

A change in traffic regulation at Moody avenue and North Mercer street, which place has been the scene of many accidents due to a intersection, was announced as made in the immediate future, by Chief of Police John Haven, this morning.

Under the change to be effected by Chief Haven, North Mercer street is to become the main thoroughfare instead of Moody avenue, as has been the regulation in the past.

The chief will have stop signs placed on Moody avenue and "slow" signs on North Mercer street at the approach to the intersection.

Chief Haven stated that the signs would mean just what they said, that all motorists must come to a stop on Moody avenue before entering or crossing Mercer street, while the motorists on Mercer street must slow up on approaching Moody avenue.

Failure to observe either of the regulations will mean fines for those motorists failing to abide by them.

HARRISBURG, July 20.—Vol-

A viva voce vote approved the measure after heated debate.

HARRISBURG, July 20.—The $22,000,000 economy program

West Pittsburg Road Plans Are Approved

County commissioners this morning notified that state highway department that they would approve the plans for improving the West Pittsburg road. This will be a state aid proposition. The state pays $12,000 per mile, and the county the balance. Residents along the West Pittsburg road have been very anxious to have it improved. Most of them have signed releases of damages. The county will not proceed with the improvement, unless satisfactory releases can be secured in all cases. It is understood that the plans contemplate some changes in the roadway.

May Invite Governor Roose-

WASHINGTON, July 20.—The Senate foreign relations sub-committee named to investigate the St. Lawrence waterways treaty will be asked to invite Gov. Franklin D. Roosevelt to testify, particularly upon the power phases of the treaty, Senator Lewis (D) of Illinois, announced today.

Developments following signature of the treaty for the $800,000,000 waterway forecast a long and bitter fight in the senate over ratification, unless the points at issue can be ironed out in the foreign relations today.

Opposition Grows
The division of power and cost to New York state of facilities for a public ownership power plant and the limitation on diversion of water from Lake Michigan both evoked opposition.

Representatives of mid-western states both acclaimed the treaty as the beginning of a new era and raised objections to the alleged imposition on future inland waterways development.

Senator Brookhart (R) of Iowa asserted that the treaty, as now written, would not only check the Lakes-to-the-Gulf waterway development, but would prohibit the building of the proposed lake Erie-Ohio river canal through the rich industrial sections of Ohio and Pennsylvania.

HEARING SET FOR AUGUST 1

(International News Service)
HARRISBURG, July 20.—Formal charges of neglect of duty and inefficiency were filed today against Public Service Commissioner Emerson Collins, Williamsport, by Gov.
Gifford Pinchot. The governor fixed August 1 at 2 o'clock for a public hearing on the charges.

Last week, the governor asked Collins to resign because he had failed to carry the full burden of a commissioner during the last 30 months. In his reply Collins said that he would quit the commission if this health did not improve as expected.

Three Formal Charges.
The letter to Collins cited three formal charges upon which the governor based his action.

The first charged that during the last 30 months the commissioner has done no work and none has been assigned to him.

The second charge declared that for the past seven months Commissioner Collins has not appeared with the commission at any place where his business was being transacted.

(International News Service)
ALEXANDRIA BAY, N. Y., July

after the dynamite explosion on the drill boat, American divers searched the St. Lawrence river today for the bodies of five other men.

Dr. Grant C. Madill, chief sur-

The disaster occurred when the

Chancellor Von Papen Takes

MACHINE GUNS GUARD OFFICE

Startling Seizure Of Power
Comes At Conclusion
Of Long Confer-

(International News Service)
BERLIN, July 20.—At 1:30 o'clock this afternoon
Reichswehr guards seized the office of the Prussian minister of state.

At the same time a company of soldiers armed with machine guns was placed on guard over the chancellor's office.

Von Papen In Control
Berlin, July 20.—Chancellor Von Papen today established a dictatorship in Prussia. He appointed himself the Reich Commissar of Prussia and named Dr. Franz Bracht, Mayor of Essen, as his plenipotentiary.

The dictatorship was invested with extraordinary powers to "maintain order."

The chancellor also proclaimed a "state of emergency" in Berlin and the Province of Brandenburg, this action being tantamount to a declaration of martial law. Lieut. Gen.
Gerard von Rundstedt was appointed military commissar for this area.

The announcement that a dictatorship had been declared for Prussia came at the conclusion of a long conference called by the chancellor with Heinrich Hirtsfelder, acting Premier of Prussia, and Carl Severing, Prussian Minister of the Interior.

No Other Way

The conference was held for the purpose of going over the entire situation precipitated by recent political riots and murders. The chancellor tried to find a way to avoid a dictatorship, but failed to do so, though Hirtsfelder claimed he was well able to manage the situation.
After hearing the points raised by both men the chancellor decided upon drastic action. He decreed the dictatorship, but kept his hands upon the powers connected therewith by naming himself as the Reich commissar.

Most parts of the country east of Drownings and heat deaths this were reported.

Arthur Mometer

If I thought a few well chosen words would chase the heat away, I'd set me down and pen an ode of ice fields far away. Of mounds of snow and chilling winds, and seas with icy spume, where heat is unknown all the year, and people never fume, about the way the weather is, they take it cold and chill, where icicles are used for sticks, and snow birds get their fill.
But though I paint a canvas thus,
of ice fields far away, the weather still continues hot, it's 90 today.

that the plant conducted an alleged process of filtering denatured alco-

The plant supplies establishments

K. OF P. LODGE OBSERVES ANNIVERSARY

Many Members At Fete Last Night

Robert Blum Lodge Celebrates 52nd Anniversary With Banquet

MANY LONG TIME MEMBERS ATTEND

Fifty-second anniversary of the institution of Robert Blum Lodge No. 466, Knights of Pythias, was most fittingly observed last evening at a banquet held in the dining room of St. John's Lutheran church, with many members of lodges of the county and a number of prominent citizens of the city as special guests.

The dining room of the church was appropriately decorated in the colors of the order, red, yellow and blue, while beautiful bouquets of seasonal flowers graced the banquet tables and added to the attractiveness of the occasion.

Elwood City Feature
Featuring the occasion was the numbers played by the Mandolin Club of Elwood City, singing directed by Red Williams with Julius W. Sypher at the piano and an interesting program of brief addresses by different persons present.

The addresses for the most part were words of commendation and congratulation to the organization that had withstood the ravages of time for more than fifty years and is still functioning as actively as ever as an exponent of Pythianism.

Most interesting reminiscences of the past of the community and the organization were recalled in the remarks of the Hon. Fred L. Rentz of The News, William C. Hess and Alderman H. G. Coates.

Other speakers of the evening included Mayor Charles B. Mayne, Rev. F. E. Stough, Attorney W. J. Moffatt and W. C. Hess. Mr. Holtzmann spoke among other things of the K. of P. Home of which he is one of the governing body.

The remarks of all speakers were commendatory. C. W. Herman Hess, Past Grand Chancellor of the state of Pennsylvania and present Supreme Representative of the order from the state of Pennsylvania, acted as toastmaster of the evening and carried out his part of the program in a splendid manner.

The evening was opened with the singing of America under the direction of Red Williams, after which Rev. F. E. Stough said the blessing. A splendid dinner was then served by the ladies of the church, after which the program of the evening got underway. In his opening remarks, Toastmaster C. W. Herman Hess, recalled many incidents in the history of Robert Blum Lodge, among others that it had been organized on July 19, 1880, just fifty-two years to the day. In addition to the several speakers, there were vocal solos by Fred D. Coates and Red Williams.

Living Charter Member Speaks
William C. Hess, the only living charter member of the lodge, was one of the speakers and as such recalled some of the outstanding events in the history of Robert Blum Lodge.

One of the features of the evening was the call on the part of the toastmaster for veteran members of the Knights of Pythias to stand up and be accorded the applause of their fellow guests.

Three of the group, William C. Hess, James Pollyblank and Jacob Paden stood up when the call was made for those who had been members of the order for more than fifty years.

When the call was made for those who had been members between 45 and 50 years, Alderman H. G. Coates and Oswald Todd stood up. The number standing up was more numerous between 35 and 45 years as members. Among those standing up at this call were C. W. Marks, Jacob Cosel, William Drescher, C. W. Houlette, Enoch Percival and James Seamon. An increasingly large number arose when the call was made for members of twenty-five-years years affiliation.

The affair was brought to a close by singing the ode of the Knights of Pythias.

Among those present were H. G. Coates, N. J. Holtzmann, of Beaver Falls, William J. Moffatt, Fred L. Rentz, C. W. Herman Hess, Mayor Charles B. Mayne, Rev. F. E. Stough, William C. Hess, James Pollyblank, Jacob W. Paden, Charles W. Marks, Henry E. Elise, C. A. Cook, H. L. Schweinsberg, C. N. Springer, E. D. Smith, D. Dinsmore, C. W. Shingledecker, F. M. Glass, H. K. Bell, C. W. Houlette, G. W. Martin.

Oswald Todd, A. Earl Douglas, A. B. Pautz, C. E. Lamson, E. C. Snyder, H. W. Houk, John Hoon, W. F. Drescher, Jacob Cosel, A. Marlin, F. W. Eckert, Enoch Percival, of Youngstown, O., Charles Louden of Edinburg, J. L. Maxwell, A. J. Howell of Ellwood City, J. L. Moser, L. C. Bowman, J. W. Winger, Thomas Arthur, R. L. White, Ellwood City, Joseph A. Winger, Earl H. Maxwell, James Seamon, Fred D. Coates, Julius W. Sypher, Red Williams, A. William Neate, J. W. Snare, J. J. Guy, William Cowan, J. Pacelle and Howard E. is concerned. Pa Newc only recently walked into one to see how food for their guests is bought and stored. And the quantities they buy aren't the same as at home.

Now don't you Mullenowners forget the 9th of August and you old-timers the 10th. Those are two gala days for both, and they promise to draw out as large a gathering as ever. Make your plans for attending now.

The moon was a glorious sight Tuesday night, and to watch it arise as one sat about a campfire on the top of a hill was enough to inspire a poetical nature to writing verse.

Sleeping on the ground with the sky for a ceiling may have its advantages but what they are one of Pa Newc's family failed to discover Tuesday night as he rolled in a blanket and slept on the ground at camp.

Visitors from distant points outside the city continued to marvel at the splendid Municipal Golf Course provided for New Castle citizens. Last evening, a New York state man played over the course and remarked that the local links was the equal of any private club course he had ever played on. Outdoors seem to appreciate the course more than the folks right here at home, who have come to take it as merely a matter of course.

One of the finest kept lawns to be found in this district is at the A. T. & T. Repeater station on the New Castle-New Bedford road, just outside the city.

Lawrence county residents will certainly approve the move to eliminate the rural teachers institute this fall, and use of the funds for other school purposes. Teacher's institutes have long since passed their periods of usefulness as educational assets, it is believed.

From one store in New Castle comes the report that the returns for last Saturday's cash business were larger than on the corresponding Saturday a year ago, despite the fact that retail prices are about half as large as they were a year ago.

It may be blistering hot today, but there are a number of places about the city where the winter's supply of coal is being stored.

Traffic light at Park and Highland avenues was not operating on Tuesday nor today, it was noted by Pa Newc. Apparently police are doubtful of the need of this light at the present time.

Unidentified Body Of Man Is Washed Ashore At Erie

Officials Believe Man Was Murdered And Body Tossed In Lake

(International News Service)

ERIE, Pa., July 20.—Believed to have been the victim of foul play, the body of an unidentified man, about 50-year-old, with a deep gash above the right eye, was found today on Lake Erie beach, near here.

Authorities reached the theory that the man had been slain and was carried to the beach in effort to cover up the crime.

The body, fully clothed, was found on the water's edge. Authorities claim the man had not met death by drowning, as the water was too calm during the night to wash the body ashore.

and patrolmen on foot, the veterans were escorted to their encampment. Held Under Bail Arrested with Pace were B. E. Johnson and Walter Eiker, all of them from Detroit. Pace and Johnson were charged with disorderly conduct and parading without a permit, and held under $125 bail, each.

In all about 250 leaders of the workers ex-service men's league took part in the demonstration, though only about 75 men were actually at the scenes where Pace, Johnson and Eiker contested with the police.

Though police tussled with the veterans, there were no injuries, as Superintendent of Police Glassford has issued orders against violence except in case of dire emergency.

Try To Run Police Guard

WASHINGTON, July 20.—The long expected clash between Capital Police and members of the Bonus Expeditionary Forces occurred at 10 a. m. today and about 30 members of the radical element under the leadership of John Pace, Detroit veteran, attempted to run the guard which police had thrown about the White House.

In attempting to break through the cordon the police had thrown about the executive mansion, the veterans came singly and thus were enabled to get through the outposts of the police.

They converged at 15th street and Pennsylvania avenue, before the U. S. Treasury. This point is about a block from the western edge of the White House grounds.

Scuffle Occurs

A score or more of veterans there attempted a formation, but were met in a short distance by Police Inspector Headley, who immediately blew his whistle for re-enforcements.

He halted Pace, and seized him by the neck when Pace attempted to free himself.

The move on the part of Pace and his men was made in spite of orders from Police Superintendent Glassford, who stationed patrols about the camp. His men had orders to interrupt any organized effort at leaving the camp, but the men circumvented this by leaving the camp singly or in pairs, and meeting further up town.

John Pace is one of the leaders who was at the head of one of the bonus marching contingents that camped in New Castle near the Central Fire Station, during the march on Washington. His delegation was one of the first to come through this city.

Chief Haven has contemplated use for the light at Highland and Park avenues. This is to have it placed directly in front of Highland avenue school equipped with a hand lever, which the teachers or janitor of the school may use in providing for the safety of the children in crossing Highland avenue on coming to and leaving school.

The operator would regulate traffic during a brief period after which the light would be turned off and there would be no regulation of traffic.

During the four years that Roosevelt has been governor of New York he has visited every nook and corner of the state each summer inspecting state institutions.

He stated repeatedly that the only way a candidate can become acquainted with and understand the needs of the people is to visit and talk with them in their home communities. As a candidate for governor, Roosevelt visited nearly every county in the state. If he carries out that plan in the presidential campaign, and that is what he has in mind at present, he will make a personal appearance in most of the states.

missed defeat. The bill, sponsored by Rep. Clarence L. Ederer, Montgomery, lops $5,106,000 from appropriations made for construction at the various state-owned institutions.

Over the opposition of administration forces the bill was passed. The vote was 105 to 54. The "aye" side didn't have a vote to spare.

Another bill which will be sent to the senate for concurrence is a Steedle bill which repeals an act of the special session of 1931 appropriating $250,000 to state-owned hospitals, a sum which as yet has not been touched. The measure passed the house by a vote of 122 to 34.

The lower branch had before it today another resolution by Rep. Robert S. Spangler, York, which provides for a voluntary reduction in the salaries of judges in Pennsylvania. The cut the jurists would be asked to take is 10 per cent, affecting salaries of less than $10,000.

Judges receiving more than that would be asked to accept voluntarily a slash of 15 per cent.

Speculation.
Considerable speculation as to the ultimate fate of the three Staudenmeier truck bills developed in the lower branch. The house ways and means committee, weighed the information presented yesterday by proponents and opponents of the measures, which would reduce the weights and lengths of trucks and trailers and increase fees generally.

In the beginning, it was generally understood that the bills would change the status of trucks for hire only and the various utility companies stood together in supporting them.

A further study, however, disclosed the fact that all trucks could be affected and the hearing yesterday developed the information that the railroad companies are now the only utility organizations supporting them.

Other organizations opposing the measures are waging a vigorous struggle to have them killed.

LEADERS' HIKE

The moon shone down most gloriously Tuesday night on a group of Girl Scout leaders as they slept under the stars at the Eckles camp along the Neshannock.

Early in the afternoon the group was seen trekking along the road to the camp and upon their arrival they unpacked their rolls, donned bathing suits and went for a dip. After cooling off in this manner for a while they set to work to prepare supper, building their fires, broiling steaks and roasting potatoes. Another dip featured the early evening and then about the camp-fire the group made merry with song and story until the moon rode high in the sky, then they crawled into their blankets and were quickly asleep.

With the sun the group was up this morning, building fires and getting breakfast before returning to town.

HOME-GOING ALIENS

FOR the first time in the history of this country, according to statistics of the Bureau of Immigration, the number of emigrants in a fiscal year have exceeded the number of immigrants. They are leaving now in a daily ratio of three to one.

The causes for this are obvious. The departing individuals who have not found them here are hoping to find work and lower living costs in foreign lands. Our severe immigration restrictions had cut down the number of newcomers before the depression acted to send some of those already here back home. The policy of deporting aliens on a large scale has helped to swell the tide of out-goers.

At present most people regard this as a wholesome tendency. They believe it makes less competition for jobs and less work for relief agencies. It should be easier to assimilate the ones who are left when their numbers are not always being augmented by new arrivals.

CONEY ISLAND PROFITS BY ADVERSITY

Shakespeare plays much stress on the uses of adversity. In this country we give practical demonstrations of the truth. For instance, a week ago Sunday Coney Island was visited by one of the most disastrous fires in its history. It might be thought that would spell ruin for the season. But not so. Last Sunday an almost universal desire to look at the ruins took possession of the surrounding population. The result was record-breaking. Police estimated that 850,000 persons inspected the fire area. Not less than 50,000 automobiles choked the streets and caused a congestion that strained the resources of the authorities.

The popular resort has had great crowds before, but it taxes the memory of those now living to recall anything that faintly resembles that number of men, women and children. It costs money to get to Coney Island even if you use your own car. And the hundreds of thousands who went there must have spent a considerable amount of the coin of the realm. The effect was what some economists would call a redistribution of wealth. It is an instance of where profits have come from adversity.

THE ORIGINAL TELEPHONE GIRL

Few persons now recall the fact that the first telephone operators were generally boys. Here, as elsewhere, the women have crowded out the men. We are so used to using the telephone that it is hard to think of it as a modern invention. But the New York Times, recording the death of Mary Kennedy at the age of seventy-four, describes her as the original telephone girl. She was taken on because a boy swore at an angry subscriber—the assumption being, of course, that a girl would not swear.

Times have changed in that respect; but if a telephone girl ever is tempted to swear, as she might be on occasion, she presumably keeps her thoughts to herself. At all events, she is usually quick, efficient and obliging, and there is little danger that mere man will ever replace her. There is one item about Miss Kennedy that is not mentioned in the account of her death. Did she ever "listen in"?

MARRIAGE IN 1931

Marriages in 1931 were not so numerous in the United States as in 1930 says the Bureau of Census which makes its figures public today. The decrease was 6.1 per cent. But this lessening rate compares well with the 8.4 per cent decrease from 1929 to 1930, so the state of matrimony is still in the union.

Divorces decreased 41 per cent, as against 4.9 per cent from 1929 to 1930, so that in the race between marriage and divorce marriage is making decided headway against divorce.

There were 1,060,000 marriages last year and 183,000 divorces, which seem to say that one out of six marriages are failures. Man seems to be putting asunder what God hath joined together at the rate of 1.49 putting asunder for 8.5 joining together.

Nevada, the state of Reno, is second in the percentage (27) of marriage decrease and, of course, leads all the states in percentages of divorces granted. Nevada, paradoxically shows a 25.1 per cent increase in marriage rate. Idaho seems the state where marriage slumps most, her rate of decrease being 49.7.

The 11 states reporting increased rate of marriage—excluding Nevada—Kentucky leads with 9.7, South Dakota, Nebraska, New Hampshire, Virginia, West Virginia, Utah, South Carolina, Florida and Maryland which just goes under the wire with one-half of one per cent.

SELF-RELIANCE

Who builds his hopes on fickle things,
The joy some mere possession brings,
The trinkets silver coins can buy,
Has naught on which he can rely.
For luxury and swollen pride
In battle quickly fall aside.

Life has no crushing fears for him
Who keeps his hands in working trim,
And, self-reliant, looks about
In every time of need and doubt
And says, "No failure I'll admit While I far better still am fit!"

Wisdom and faith and courage stay
When luxuries are blown away.
The rich resources of the will
Are man's supreme possessions still.
With these a man can find his way
However dark may be the day.

Can Men and Women Be Friends?
What Kind of Friends?
One Answer Is "No"

By MARSHALL MASLIN
I HAVE YOUR LETTER.

You'd like me to answer the questions that you've been asking everybody: "Can men and women be friends as women and men and men and men are friends?"

You know a man, "experienced in the ways of us, all over the world," and he says: "No, it is impossible. Men and women can NOT be friends in that way."

You'd like one more opinion, one more answer.
Of course you know that my opinion is just the opinion of one man, but I think every man has made up his mind on this question and so has every woman. Every vote counts.

And I suppose you are thinking of men and women of about the same age when you ask this question. Well, this is what I think. I think "No." And when I think that men and women can not be friends with each other as women are with women and men with men, I'm not thinking of special cases, or of how human beings ought to be, but of the way they truly are today.

The friendship between normal men and between normal women is a quiet and stable thing. Men know each other emotionally and mentally, as women know other women; and there is, despite all our wishes and our yearnings to have things different, a sex-solidarity that keeps men and women somewhat apart.

Between men and women there is an excitement that is sometimes subtle and sometimes obvious, an explosive possibility. It may be possible for a woman to feel toward a man the same friendship she feels toward another woman, but I am sure a man could not have that same friendship for a woman.

Don't misunderstand me, please. I do not mean that a man can not be friends with a woman. I have women friends that have lasted and that, I believe, will be permanent, but they are not QUITE the same as the man friendships. I don't say they are higher in the scale of human friendship, nor that they are lower; they are merely different.

But, finally, WOULD you have things different? Would you change men and women and set their relationship on some other plane than the one we know? Would you sacrifice the dangers and ecstasies of the other relationship between man and woman in order to achieve the quieter, less troublesome friendship of men with men and women with women?

I have tried to answer your question. Will you answer mine?

SCANDAL

You like to circulate scandal. In whispers you pass on the unfavorable things you hear about the children of your friends and relatives and even while professing yourself loyal you keep right on digging in and passing on the dirt. Perhaps your own immediate family have so far escaped unscathed.

But, irrespective of how carefully your children have been reared, they may make a misstep and become subject to all sorts of stories. Even though their indiscretions may not be of a serious nature, a trespass of the laws of society may cause them to be censured.

It does not take much to start a web of ever-increasing scandal to the conveyor of gossip. Now there may be no offenders in your family circle but in past generations there were some who did not travel the straight and narrow path.

If you become known to the person of evil reports you may expect that your own family will be inspected for a generation or two back.

Why not stop unkind stories about your friends by failing to repeat them?

LIGHTNING

According to a familiar proverb lightning never strikes twice in the same place. Experience has proved this to be erroneous.

Certain tall redwood and sequoia trees in the famous big-tree groves of California have been struck many times by lightning, as is proved by the scars they bear. Forest rangers have observed trees which have been struck two or three times in a single violent thunderstorm.

The platinum cap on the top of the Washington Monument in the national capital has been hit by lightning on numerous occasions. It was placed there in anticipation of this fact, in order that it might protect the cap-stones beneath it.

The Eiffel Tower in Paris also attracts lightning because of its isolated height. It has an efficient system of lightning rods to conduct these electrical charges safely to the ground.

The sharp point which marks the summit of the Chrysler Building in New York City, is also a favorite mark for lightning, and has already been struck on several occasions. It is doubtful less it hit many times during the thousand years it is expected to stand.

European Debt Diplomacy Riddled By American Public

Agreement Among Nations On Reparations Is Believed To Be Beneficial But Obligations To This Country Are Expected To Stand

With much uncertainty as to the agreements made by European nations on the debts to the United States, the lenient attitude toward Germany at the Lausanne conference is applauded here. It is insisted, however, that the reparation reduction should have no effect of the stand of American diplomats who insist on the maintenance of European obligations.

"In a communication intended not less for Europe because addressed to the Senate Foreign Relations Committee," says the WASHINGTON EVENING STAR, "Mr. Hoover voices American gratification over the reparation settlement. But in the same breath the President brands reparations a 'strictly European problem' and likens it to 'any of the other political or economic questions that have impeded European recovery.' Having thus deftly labeled reparations as an exclusively European issue, Mr. Hoover makes it 'absolutely clear' that the United States has had no part or parcel in any of the stealthy, devious or mysterious agreements recently concluded at Lausanne. The President adds, that 'of course' our Government is in no respect committed to these deals or the arrangements by which they are documented."

THE NEW YORK SUN sees "a hopeful scheme for passing the buck to the United States," but advises that while "this nation may be expected to give sympathetic hearing to any reasonable request, it has no intention of lifting burdens from the taxpayers of debtor nations simply that it may impose them upon its own taxpayers." The OMAHA WORLD-HERALD analyzes the problem with the statement: "Literally millions of Americans are bowed down under a burden of debts they are unable to pay. What of them? Shall they be denied any measure of relief while generous nations are extending the nations of Europe? More than that, shall European debts be forgiven only to be piled upon the shoulders of American taxpayers, who will have to pay them if Europe doesn't? Obviously, when it comes to another revision downward of the war debts, the United States is in a position to be to the family of nations that must rise or fall together."

"If the allies' debts to the United States," thinks the SPOKANE SPOKESMAN REVIEW, "were taken out of consideration as they must be taken out, the French would not have given that meager settlement consideration. Then why was France won over to acceptance? Manifestly with hints, or secret promises, from MacDonald? French diplomacy would next be turned upon the United States for cancellation of the allies' debts."

"Congress and the American people," advises the PHILADELPHIA EVENING BULLETIN "must be prepared to face, not a demand for cancellation, but in due time, a request for adjustments." When the request is made, it must be squarely viewed in all its relation to the American policy formulated in national as well as international interest. Nobody is going to ask us to do more than apply the old, settled principle of capacity to pay to the present position of the debtor countries. "The BOSTON TRANSCRIPT declares: 'It is clear that Europe awaits some sort of proposal for straightening out the trouble. Americans are inclined to expect us to make it. If the debtor Powers of Europe are in such a situation that payment of their debts, as interest on them, has become an impossibility, whatever proposal may be due in the case should, it would seem, in the analogy of private

"Take It Or Leave It" Stand Of Colleges On Curricula, Assailed By University Head

By DR. E. H. WILKINS, President Oberlin College, Oberlin, O.

Colleges throughout the country have developed an "institutional inertia, a take it or leave it attitude" in the presentation of their curricula.

The college has a certain brand of education to sell. It is no more socially responsible than any other seller of valuable goods. The buyer may take them or leave them, as he chooses.

Students know pretty well what it is the colleges have to offer. If they came and do not find what they want it is their own fault and not the fault of the college. The college ought to shut out the students who do not want the particular thing the college has to offer.

On the personal side the inertia is clearly explainable. Any man likes to do the thing that he is trained to do. The inertia consists in going on with the thing you want to do without tackling anything else. Another inertia is impatience with the student as he is or she is to be. I think that impatience loses what little justification it has.

Many people in the country have acquired an "educational standpointism" in regard to any change in the college curriculum.

The conservatism that rests on conviction is the belief that the present college does, after all, do its job as well as can be expected. The problem is, I think, to convince them that that conviction is not justified. I do not think that it is.

The college of today is very sharply divided into two parts, the lower half or general, and the upper half or specialized. The general education to be taught in the lower half of the college should be socialized education, by which I mean preparation for the five fields of social living—home life, employment, citizenship, leisure, philosophy and religion. There should be instruction and experience in each of those five fields and there should be a constant effort toward social mindedness. One ought to compress that socialized education into two years of college. For those who are not going into professional schools, I recommend a three-year course.

Pinchot Charges That Legislature Not Pushing State Relief Program

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, July 20.—"So far as unemployment relief is concerned the extra session appears to be headed for failure," Gov. Gifford Pinchot asserted today in a statement reviewing the present status of the legislation which embodies the 14-point program agreed upon prior to the call for convening.

The governor reviewed the circumstances under which Republican organization leaders agreed to legislation which it was believed would take care of the unemployment situation and balance the budget for the present fiscal year.

In his statement today the governor charged that only two of about 50 bills introduced under the program have reached his desk for approval. One concerns the method of local tax collection and the other gives the secretary of banking wider powers in the liquidation of closed banks.

The two measures which the governor considers the most important in meeting the present situation are still pending. One would permit the state's political subdivisions to make emergency loans against uncollected delinquent taxes. That measure has passed the house and is now in a senate committee.

The other measure, the governor said, is that which would permit a constitutional amendment to allow the Commonwealth to repay political subdivisions for the money expended in unemployment relief. It has passed the house but is also held up in a senate committee.

The governor's statement reviewed the entire legislative program and charged that the "chief unemployment relief items in the agreed program are at a standstill."

Closing with an appeal to the people the governor asserted that unless they "take a hand the result of the second extra session will be exactly like that of the first session, except that it will be worse."

In that case, the governor said, "it will not be Gifford Pinchot who will be doublecrossed, but the unemployed, the widows, and the orphans and the sick."

Fenton Fights For Abandoning Agency At West Middlesex

Borough Of West Middlesex Fails To Produce Witnesses In Favor Of Retaining Agency

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, July 20.—Although residents of West Middlesex entered a written disapproval of the abandonment of the agency freight and passenger station in that borough by the Pennsylvania Railroad, they failed to introduce witnesses to show the necessity for the agency at a hearing before Examiner S. Ray Shelby of the public service commission here today.

Ely A. Fenton, of New Castle, supervisor of the railroad's E. and A. division, testified dwindling revenues and competition forced the company to consider the abandonment. Revenues for the station totaled only $1,037.61 for the first six months of 1932, he said.

The proposed change will have no effect on service furnished to West Middlesex, Fenton testified, except that inbound freight will have to be prepared. The railroad will maintain its present system and facilities for unloading freight.

This combined with the passenger and freight service provided by the Erie railroad and the passenger service of a bus line will give the borough adequate accommodations, he believed.

The effect on Hitler's influence in Germany is emphasized by the CIN CINNATI TIMES-STAR, with the statement: "Up to now Hitler's victory at the polls has been freely predicted, but the outcome at Lausanne considerably lessens his chances. No doubt one purpose of France's conciliatory policy at Lausanne was to checkmate the obnoxious Fascist. Lausanne opens the door of economic independence to Germany. It restores to her control over the Reichsbank and the Federal Reserve. It gives her credit structure a new base. The three billion marks bill that was handed her does not appear to endanger her material or spiritual recovery. If it does prove a danger, payment will not be demanded. What more could Germany reasonably hope for in the circumstances?"

SUIT OVER BILL

A. Darrell Burke, has filed a suit at the prothonotary's office against Austin Pritch to collect a bill for $485.

ASK WHY BILLBOARDS ARE NOT TAKEN DOWN

East Siders interested in civic beauty of the city are at a loss to understand why the billboards that occupy the center of the city park on East Washington street have not been removed as scheduled.

Mayor's relief workers spent a lot of time on the plot some months ago, fixing up the park. It was the understanding at that time that the billboards in the heart of the plot were to be removed.

East Siders inform us that the billboards are still in use, and that no effort has been made to remove them. They believe that it is high time action is taken to remove these boards from the park.

The site is owned by the city, and space for the billboards was rented some years ago, before the plot was beautified.

Four Officers Held For Trial

Supreme Court Justice Hearing "Third Degree" Death Inquiry Holds Four

DEPUTY CHIEF IS ALSO HELD

By JAMES L. KILGALLAN, International News Service Staff Correspondent

MINEOLA, N. Y., July 20.—Supreme Court Justice Meier Steinbrink, presiding at a public inquiry into the brutal "third degree" death of Hyman Stark, a youthful prisoner, today ordered three detectives and a police lieutenant held for the grand jury on charges of murder in the second degree.

They are: Detective Leslie W. Pearsall, Harry Zander and Charles Wesner and Police Lieutenant Jesse Mayforth.

Fractured Larynx

Stark died of a fractured larynx after an eight-hour grilling at Mineola police headquarters. He had been severely beaten with a hose, a shoe and a heavy ledger. One police official, Deputy Chief Frank J. Tappen, it has been testified, planted his feet on the prisoner's neck and stomach, and rocked back and forth. Stark had been arrested on the charge of beating and robbing the mother of a detective who worked out of the Mineola headquarters.

Justice Steinbrink ordered Tappen held for the grand jury on a charge of dereliction of duty. Tappen, who weighs 250 pounds, denied he had jumped on Stark's throat.

Seven Others Held

The judge also ordered that seven others be held for the grand jury on charges of assault in the second degree. They are Detective Patrick Shanley, Sergeant Marcel Chagnon, Detective George Hutchinson, Detective Thomas Bonanza, Patrolman Lannis Ray, Patrolman Harry Lilligren and Detective Joseph Hipsen.

Garage Burns In Fire This Morning

Damage Of $300 Occasioned By Fire Starting From Spontaneous Combustion

Damage of approximately $300 resulted from a blaze in the garage of Frank Dudzinsky of 759 Lathrop street at 1:30 this morning. Assistant Fire Chief James E. Thomas is of the belief that the fire was caused by spontaneous combustion.

Fourth and Eighth ward departments answered the alarm.

Two other alarms were answered during the past 24 hours by city firemen.

At 8:40 last evening firemen were called to the Pennsylvania Power Company building on the Diamond, when the chimney closed up while paper was being burned in the furnace, filling the place with smoke.

At 5:10 yesterday afternoon, firemen were called to West Falls street by an alarm from Box 14. An automobile which was under repairs and was being pushed by another machine backfired, setting fire to gasoline and oil about the motor. There was no damage.

Issue Permit For New Building

Although a contract for the building has not yet been let, erection of iron work for the Woods building at the corner of East Washington and North Mill street started today. The contract for the iron work has been let to Eugene Sheridan.

A permit for the construction of a two-story brick building has been granted by the department of city engineers to Robert W. Eckles, local architect. It is estimated by the permit that the building will cost $35,000.

An office entrance to the building will be in North Mill street, with an entrance and display windows on East Washington street.

Mock Warfare In Training Camp Of National Guards

Several Days Of Martial Maneuvers Climaxed By Sharp Mythical Engagement

CAVALRY FORCES CHARGE INFANTRY

No Victor Declared In Battle That Occurs Shortly After Daybreak

(International News Service)
CAMP O'NEIL, MT. GRETTA, Pa., July 20.—As a climax to several days of martial maneuvers, three regiments of the Pennsylvania National Guard met in mock warfare early today.

The "fighting" took place 20 miles north of the base at Mt. Gretna, on the new military reservation at Indiantown Gap.

Acting on the defense was the 56th Infantry Brigade under the leadership of Brigadier General Robert M. Brookfield of Philadelphia. The infantry brigade was designated as the blues and consisted of two regiments, the 111th under Col. Charles C. Myers, Philadelphia, and the 112th under Col. C. Blaine Smathers, Grove City. Attached to it for maneuvers was the first city troop of Philadelphia.

National Guard Horseman of the 103rd Cavalry regiment, under Col. Arthur C. Colahan, also of Philadelphia, were the enemy the blacks.

For three days they had been in the field, maneuvering against the blues.

Enemy Is Located

To stem this advance, General Brookfield moved his troops from

Mt. Gretna to Indiantown Gap yesterday morning and established a bivouac camp in the fields just south of the gap in the Blue Mountains.

Security detachments, with outposts two miles out, were established around their camp to prevent a surprise attack. Intelligence units under Capt. Walter A. Linn, Lieut. George Aspin, and Lieut. Leighton P. Stradley brought in information that the blacks were encamped at Manada Gap eight miles to the southwest.

Shortly after daybreak, the blue outposts were attacked by cavalry advance guards. General Brookfield issued orders for breaking camp and moving into action. The cavalry launched a combined mounted pistol and saber attack, charging down on the enemy. The infantry retaliated with rifle and machine gun fire.

No Victor Declared

Cavalry troops were not allowed to charge closer than 50 yards to the dismounted troops. Officers of the regular army and National Guard, acting as umpires under the direction of Major General William G. Price, commander of the 28th Division, were stationed at intervals throughout the area.

Both sides were declared to have performed creditably and there was no victor. The troops prepared to return to Mt. Gretna immediately afterward.

The cavalry regiment will remain in the field for one more day. Officers estimate that they will have covered between 80 and 100 miles before they return to their base at Colebrook, after four days of road marching and maneuvering.

Roaming Dogs Upset Many Garbage Cans

Many Local Residents Complain About The Condition Of Their Yards In The Mornings

In the wee hours of the morning when all good people are in bed there are a number of prowlers going about the city performing mischievous and annoying pranks.

When dawn comes up and people begin to stir, these prowlers creep away to their homes.

The sight that greets mother as she comes down to prepare breakfast, is an upset garbage can with its contents strewn about the yard, presenting a not too pleasant sight.

These upset cans are a result of a lot of roving dogs who are not penned up where they belong. Something ought to be done about it the question is "What?"

Nothing Found Linking Ainey With Charges

Many Interesting Facts Have Been Uncovered, But Charges Are Not Substantiated

LEGAL EXPENSE ACCOUNT PROBED

(International News Service)
HARRISBURG, July 20.—The senate committee probing misconduct charges against W. D. B. Ainey, Public Service Commission chairman, found its hands laden today with a heap of "interesting" information.

But beyond the point of being interesting, the inquiry developed nothing to link Ainey with the receipt of money doled out in $15,000 lots by T. E. Mitten, late head of the Mitten management and the Philadelphia Rapid Transit.

The committee, as a result, will not drop the investigation as soon as was expected and planned to reconvene next Monday night.

A. B. Millar, once a Mitten employee, and the man alleged by A. A. Chapman, Ainey's accuser, to have been the "bagman" between the utility chief and the commission chairman, was hauled in the foreground by a study of the Mitten books and records.

Legal Expenses

Millar's huge expense account gave the probers deep concern and Millar was subjected to a barrage of questions. He received about $100,000 in "legal expenses" between 1921 and 1930, the records revealed. Millar, now secretary of the Pennsylvania Electric Association, denied he ever had any financial transactions with Ainey.

Another interesting disclosure was a trip to Europe which Millar admitted taking in August, 1927. Ainey was a passenger on the ships in both directions. Millar, however, denied paying any part of the commissioner's expenses. He received $8,000 as expenses when the journey started. When the committee called the high cost of the trip to his attention, he said the ships were filled with Legionnaires and he had to pay a high price for a stateroom.

ACTIVITIES AT CAMP PHILLIPS

Boy Scouts Are Having Great Time—Tennis And Boat Races

(Special To The News)

CAMP JOHN M. PHILLIPS, July 19.—About 8:15 p. m. a news flash was received at Camp John M. Phillips reporting that an airplane had left Pittsburgh Tuesday morning spreading camping propaganda and had been forced down a short distance from camp with an empty gas tank. The scouts immediately rose to the rescue, that is some of them did. They were the fellows who wanted the camping circulars to reach more camping recruits. The campers were led in their attempt by Elverson and Coss while Miner and Hamilton led the rest of the camp who favored the city and wanted the aviator to stay grounded. The gas was in the form of stones in tin cans and it took some careful handling to keep from rattling them. A cannon shot was heard and the campers and city dwellers made a rush in that direction thinking it might be some signal from the aviator. They were right for as the city dwellers neared the spot a feeble voice was heard crying "More gas." They immediately formed a wide circle around the phantom airplane and succeeded in capturing three out of the five cans of gas, winning the game. Ed. McCreary was the aviator and Joe Wilson, the mechanic.

Today was the first day this season that the camp had had an all organized game day. An archery contest for boys who had made their own arrows was called in the afternoon. Paul Bartel and Bill Stein were the only two entrants but they fought it out nip and tuck. Bartel finally won by scoring 57 out of a possible 100 points. Stein scored 54 points. After the contest they joined forces and issued a challenge to meet any two men in camp. The challenge has not been accepted, yet.

Eliminations in the tennis tournament were held this afternoon. Shirra and Hamilton of the Indian Village beat Wilson and Douds; Newmeyer and Aloe licked Hazen and Bennett in a love set; Horton and Marquis reached the semi-finals easily enough by whitewashing Gelbach and Hough; Elverson and Harper didn't have to work at all the first round by drawing a bye; then, Shirra and Hamilton put Elverson and Harper out of the race; Newmeyer and Aloe defeated Horton and Marquis to reach the finals. The last set was played in evening and the boys from West Pittsburgh, Newmeyer and Aloe were beaten by the Indians. Shirra and Hamilton, the new doubles campers champions of Camp Phillips.

The first round of boating races between the huts took place in the afternoon at the waterfront. Wilson and Gelbach were eliminated by Thacker and G. Falls. Coss and Davidson lost to McCreary and Cliff Mathis. Travers and Young outwitted Wallace and Stevenson. The Indians won again from West Pittsburgh in the boating. Miner and Mc-Camie beating Buchanan and Bannan to the finish line. The semi-finals are scheduled for tomorrow.

Bud Coss received his first year emblem at colors tonight. Willis Raney, Francis Alexander and Dick Wallace the felt arrow signifying that they have completed all the Wayseeker requirements.

This was West Pittsburgh's unlucky day. They lost the inspection banner to Volant Hut; Ed McCreary leader, George Marquis, Cliff Mathis, John Mathis, Bob Moore and George Horton.

Justice Upheld In Decision By Court

Not Always Necessary To Try Reckless Driving Cases Before Nearest Justice

In the case of the commonwealth against John Lang, which reached the court in the shape of a certiorari on Justice of the Peace S. Y. Douds, of Ellwood City, Judge R. L. Hildebrand handed down an opinion this morning, in which he upheld the justice in assessing a fine on Lang for reckless driving.

Lang was arrested in Perry township and taken before Douds who fined him $10 and costs. The appeal to court was made on the grounds that the law requires that arrests for reckless driving should be tried before the nearest justice of the peace.

There is a justice in Perry township, and also in Ellport which lies between Perry township and Ellwood City, and it was claimed that Douds had no jurisdiction.

The court holds otherwise, and cites authorities to bear out his decision.

In the estate of the late James Goodchild, Jr., in which exceptions were filed to the auditors report, the court handed down an opinion in which the report is modified on two points, and distribution is ordered in accordance with the modified report. The exceptions were taken by Elizabeth G. Gaston.

Dead Man Wins In Decision Of Court

Judge R. L. Hildebrand Hands Down Opinion In Case Bittles-Hyde Case

In an opinion handed down this morning by Judge R. L. Hildebrand in the case of E. E. Bittles, use of E. E. Bittles and Belle Bittles against F. F. Hyde, trading as the Hyde Battery Service station, Hyde, the central figure in yesterday's tragedy, won out.

The trouble grew out of a controversy over a lease for the Hyde Battery Station on East North street, on which a judgment in an amicable action in ejectment was issued. Hyde presented a petition to strike off the judgment, and in the opinion the court strikes it off and discharges the rule.

This action was taken owing to an error which had been made in drawing the lease. The lease described a property owned by Bittles, which was across North street, from the one on which the battery service was located. Efforts had been made to correct the lease but without result.

The decree had already been prepared by Judge Hildebrand when yesterday's tragedy occurred.

Mrs. S. L. Maxwell, Epworth street will arrive in the city Thursday from a western trip which has extended over a period of several weeks.

O.G. proves its case

Scientific tests upset claims of rival brands.
Give verdict to Old Gold, as coolest, throat-easiest cigarette.

CLUB WOMEN INTERESTED IN CIGARETTE PURITY WITNESS OLD GOLD SCIENTIFIC VICTORY
Mrs. Oliver C. Harriman, Mrs. Julian Gerard, and Mrs. William Thaw III, keen spectators of the Calorimeter test showing the greater coolness of OLD GOLD, in comparison with 3 other leading brands.

PROOF! . . . that's what you want in a cigarette advertisement. You can't smoke claims. You're entitled to evidence.

But do you get it . . . when an ad simply says: "My cigarette is better?"

OLD GOLD doesn't expect to win you by unsupported adjectives alone. But it does ask you to consider the findings of a great testing laboratory . . . as checked by scientists of two leading universities . . . then draw your own conclusions!

These laboratories made a "cool" test of 4 leading cigarette brands . . . and accurate, impartial scientific test. They repeated it 75 times. And consistently, the smoke of an OLD GOLD was shown to be the coolest, and hence the throat-easiest.

Coolness is the clue to quality in a cigarette. Only the finest, smoothest, purest tobacco burns "cool." Only PURE tobacco burns cool. In establishing itself as the coolest smoke, OLD GOLD proves itself the cigarette of purest and choicest tobacco quality; utterly free of hot-burning artificial flavorings.

Despondent Man Wounds Children, Commits Suicide

Philadelphia Man Severely Wounds Two Young Daughters, And Then Kills Himself

(International News Service)

PHILADELPHIA, July 20.—Crazed with worry over the loss of his job, a 53-year-old father today shot his two young daughters as they lay asleep and then sent a bullet crashing through his brain.

The father, Frank Cigor, died a half hour later, while the two girls, Lucy, 8, and Jennie, 13, were fighting for their lives at the North-eastern hospital.

Police said Cigor had been despondent since he was furloughed as an engineer by the Reading railroad after twenty-five years of service.

The mother, Josephine, 50, was believed to have been spared a similar fate because she rushed down the front stairs screaming for help as she heard the shots.

COUNTY FUND LOW, POOR ORDERS CUT

Needy On Books Now Get Help Twice Instead Of Four Times Monthly

Economizing because of sheer necessity, County Poor Director M. B. Hogue's relief office this week inaugurated a new order distribution schedule whereby orders are issued to needy folk every other week instead of every week.

The new plan of semi-monthly payments resulted from a depletion in the county poor district's treasury occasioned by the delay in the payment of county taxes.

Mr. Hogue reported that flour sacks are being given out as usual, and that more flour is being received. He stated that several carloads are yet expected.

Under the new plan we'll be distributing orders twice a month instead of four times a month as heretofore. The saving is not the question so much as the fact that we are short of funds," Mr. Hogue declared.

The relief director consumes a large part of his time investigating the new applicants who ask for aid. He personally passes on all needy cases before the county can help them.

Director Hogue reported the Lawrence county home is taxed with a record number of summer boarders this year.

Pirates Split With Phillies

Pirates Lose Ground As They Divide Twin Bill As Cubs Take Victory

WESLEY FERRELL WINS HIS 17TH

By COPELAND C. BURG
International News Service Sports Writer

NEW YORK, July 20.—Tried and found wanting is a most devastating crack but it looked today as though it must be hung on the Pittsburgh Pirates.

Never rated a championship club and crippled by injuries, the Bucs appear to be ready to toss in the sponge.

Unless the Chicago Cubs prove vastly overrated, the Pirates will drop the National League lead this week. Of course we have been wrong before.

Pirates Lose Ground. Pittsburgh lost a half a game by splitting a pair with the Phillies, while Chicago just staggered in ahead of the Giants and today the Corsairs are only two games in front of the Hornsby stable.

Bill Swift won his tenth game, beating Philadelphia 5 to 2 but Rip Collins, the hurler, boomed a triple in the eleventh and scored on Bartlett's single to nip the Bucs, 6 to 5, in the night caper.

A nifty in the way of a catch by Woody English that turned into a double play and some nice flinging by Lon Warneke, the Chicago Cubs' tall right-hander who was a training camp flop, developed into a 5 to 4 crushing defeat of the New York Giants.

Jimmy Foxx hung up homer No. 39 and "Lefty" Grove rescued Mr. Earnshaw as the Athletics turned back the St. Louis Browns twice, 9 to 8 and 16 to 6.

Gomez Wins. Vernon Gomez, the California cowboy, was supposed to be sick but he left down the lovely White Sox of Chicago with seven hits, the Yankees trudging it off, 6 to 3.

Wes Ferrell got his 17th win and his first shutout, blanking Boston's Sox with four hits. The score was Cleveland 7, Boston 0.

Detroit ignored the fact Washington was honoring Sam Rice because he has been in that fair city 17 years and humiliated the Senators for the third in a row, 3 to 2. Rice came through with two hits, anyway.

Dazzly Vance took a peep at the clouds in the seventh and St. Louis beat Brooklyn 5 to 3. Hallahan was the winning mounder.

The trailing Cincy Reds got eight hits but couldn't do a thing with them and Ed Brandt gave Boston a shutout triumph, 2 to 0.

Carnegie Playground Mushball Team Wins

Carnegie playground mushball team handed Ben Franklin playground boys a 14 to 7 defeat in a game at Carnegie playgrounds on Tuesday. T. Sheldone had a homer for Carnegie. Gallagher smote a triple. Vigali made several catches in the field for Carnegie. The Carnegie team meets the Canyon A. C. at the Canyon field tonight.

Will Handicap League Players

Strength Of Teams In New Castle Golf League To Be Equalized

At a meeting of team representatives and league officials held last evening at the Municipal Club house, it was voted to establish handicaps for every player in the league, thus equalizing the strength of the teams.

The question has been before the league at each of its meetings and it was decided last evening that this was the only fair method of putting all teams on an equal basis.

Every player will be requested to turn in his scores for a handicap and the scores of the players during the league matches will be scrutinized. Where it is found that the players are shooting better golf than their handicap shows they will be cut down.

The next matches will be played at Castle Hills on Thursday evening, the schedule having been previously announced. Play will start promptly at 5:30 and team managers are requested to have their teams ready to tee off at this time so that there will be no delay on the course.

Allen's Team Is Getting In Shape For Golf Tourney

Strict Diet And Training Rules For Legion Of Honor Golfers For Match Monday

Captain Charles E. Allen, has found it necessary to place his Legion of Honor golfing team on a strict diet of onions and spinach to put them in condition for the match at the Municipal course with the team captained by Ches Sweeney. The Sweeney roster is composed of veterans, and well does Captain Allen realize this, and would like a few more days to practice, but Captain Sweeney is anxious for the playoff.

It has been announced by Captain Allen that the match will be played over the fairways of Castle Hills golf course and this is an error, on the part of the captain, because this match is to be played at the Municipal course. Captain Sweeney's men have been playing at the Muncy course lately to get the hang of the thing. Several hours of preparation have been put in. Score-cards turned in by honest scorekeepers show figures from away below par to possibly one or two above par. Captain Allen is strictly enforcing his training table and rules and checking the habits and hours of his team-mates. The A. A. U. will not supervise the match it is understood.

The following will play on the Sweeney team—Ches Sweeney captain, W. S. Reynolds, Charles Young, C. C. Tyndal, R. F. Preston, Jim Morgan, head, Dr. W. D. Clelland, R. Morgan, Ivor Richards, George Bechtel, Albert Hewitt, H. N. McIlveny, W. J. Chapman, Ivor Davis, Bill Lewis, Clarence Jarrett, Howard Geary and Scott Paisley.

Would Abandon
Trolley LineShenango Valley Traction Company Head Asks
For Right To Abandon 2.77 Miles
Of Line

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, July 20.—Desperate financial conditions confronting the Shenango Valley Traction Company makes the immediate abandonment of its street car service between Wheatland and West Middlesex, a distance of 2.77 miles, absolutely necessary, William Muldoon, company superintendent, testified before Examiner S. Ray Shelby of the Public Service Commission here today.

Evidence showed the company suffered a loss of approximately $27,000 in 1931 and $8,000 during the first six months of 1932. Referring to the Wheatland-West Middlesex line as the "Toonerville Trolley," Muldoon revealed its dilapidated condition, explaining that an immediate expenditure of $11,000 would be necessary to put the line in proper condition for street cars to operate in safety.

Need $11,000
"At present cars travel over the route at half speed," he explained. "Immediate repairs, which would involve 3,000 tires, 30 poles, 25 spans, and the renewal of a mile of trolley wire are necessary and the company can't raise the $11,000 for this work."

If the abandonment of this line is not permitted, it will jeopardize traffic in Sharon, Sharpsville, Wheatland and intermediate points. Residents of West Middlesex claimed reductions in service on other lines should be made instead of the abandonment. Muldoon opposed this by saying that the company had made economies throughout its entire service and the abandonment was the only means of saving the company from disaster.

(International News Service)

BOSTON, July 20.—Dinner pails are rattling again in the New England states as the gates of mills and factories swing open. Reports coming in today to the New England council headquarters and other official sources presented a cheering picture of a slow but sure revival in manufacturing and business generally in this group of six states.

Orders were coming into textile mills, shoe factories, hat factories, velvet mills and jewelry shops calling for an increase in production. The "big parade" of thousands of workers appeared definitely under way at last and even a pickle factory in Cambridge prepared for a fall rush.

Drowning On Tues-

EFFORTS FUTILE

ELLWOOD CITY, July 20.—A 19 year old Rochester youth, Preston Jones went to his death while swimming in a stream at Fombell Tuesday evening. All resuscitation efforts to revive him were to no avail. He was pronounced dead by a doctor after two hours of work with the pulmotors, inhalators and artificial respiration efforts.

The youth, whose home was on Connecticut avenue, Rochester never showed signs of regaining consciousness after being withdrawn from the water by his friends. On several occasions the drowning victim gave signs of regaining life, but these were only momentarily and hope was given up about 11 o'clock last night.

According to the report given Fire Chief H. T. Plante and his men of this city, who were called to the scene, Jones and several others had come from Rochester for a picnic. The evening's program had included a swim and four of the boys proceeded to enjoy themselves. After a half hour of romping in the water one of the youths noticed that Jones was missing. A hurried search on the bank and surrounding water failed to give any trace of him.

A hue and cry was given and an earnest search begun. A big crowd was attracted to the scene and strained all their efforts in finding the body. It was recovered soon by one of the many seekers and resuscitation efforts were immediately begun.

While this was going on someone had secured Dr. Whittaker from Zelenople and sent in a call to the Ellwood City Fire Department emergency squad and also the Beaver Fire Department. Fire Chief Plante boarded two cars with six men and rushed to the scene. Accompanying him were Braeden Bookamer, Harry Bauder, Cy Shaffer, Lou Bentrim and Rev. R. H. Little.

Upon arriving there the men gave their assistance and equipment to Dr. Whittaker in an effort to revive the youth. After two hours of fruitless labor hope for Jones's life diminished and not long after he was officially pronounced dead.

How Jones got separated from his chums could not be determined. The other three had been having a good time and failed to notice his absence until they were ready to go out of the water.

When the body had been recovered and an examination conducted, it was found that the drowned victim's tongue had been cut and his head was severely bruised. This was conjectured as the result of a dive and that the youth was probably unconscious at the time of drowning. The physician and firemen found difficulty administering the inhalator and pulmotor to the nose and mouth because of a flow of blood.

The remains were taken to the young man's home in Rochester later in the night. The funeral services will be announced later.

New Life For Stock Probe

James E. Stewart, South Dakota, Succeeds Gray As Special Counsel For Senate

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, July 20.—With a newly appointed expert in charge, backed by a newly named subcommittee, the senate banking and currency committee's New York Stock Exchange investigation today took on new life.

James E. Stewart of South Dakota, who supplanted William A. Gray as the guiding genius of the inquiry, declared:

"So far, the evidence has dealt mainly with the technique of the stock market and the evils of professional manipulation.

"Although I would not want to speak for the subcommittee, my own belief is that we should go back of these market practices and examine the holding companies and investment trust."

"This is the greatest unexplored field before the committee," Senator Norris (R) of Nebraska asserted.

"In 99 times out of 100, there is no excuse for holding companies except to bleed the public."

Have You Heard It Said—

"That everything came down in price except PRESCRIPTIONS." We overheard the above conversation—not knowing the parties we could not interfere.

We are telling them now that they never had their PRESCRIPTIONS filled in our stores—or they would know better.

PRESCRIPTIONS filled in both of our stores—at prices consistent with quality drugs and chemicals.

The 224 men established new safety records in the first half of the year, bettering the records not only of the corresponding period of last year but also the six month records that have steadily and regularly improved every six months over the last five or six years of unbroken safety progress.

Not one of them was responsible for a single accident.

According to P-O system officials the already outstanding record of the first half of 1931 was bettered 29 percent.

Wives of the operators will be guests.

The speakers will be: Charles A. Leedy, Youngstown, guest speaker at both dinners. William H. Muldoon, general superintendent will preside.

Brazilian Forces Have Revolution Well In Control

Federal Soldiers Are Slowly
Closing In On Insurgents
In Sao Paulo District

(International News Service)
RIO DE JANEIRO, July 20.—Officials of the war ministry today described the military operations of the federalists against the Sao Paulo insurgents as "like a giant nutcracker in which the rebels will be crushed."

The federalists operating on the south side of this nut-cracker have advanced ten miles beyond Itarare, which was captured yesterday and have occupied three villages. These forces are operating from the Para-na frontier.

In the north the main forces of Gen. Goes Monteiro, federal commander, have consolidated their positions about Pasa Quatra and driven the insurgents from seven villages.

BUENOS AIRES, Argentine, July 20.—Paraguay and Bolivia are closer to war today than at any time since the dispute between the two countries over the Chaco frontier district arose, according to advices received here.

A dispatch from La Paz, Bolivia, reports that Paraguayan forces attacked a fortress in the Chaco on July 15, killing a Bolivian officer and one soldier.

HUGE GAS TANKS BURN IN DITCH

TITUSVILLE, Pa., July 20.—A large truck train of the Pennzoil
Company of Oil City, was destroyed by fire along McKinney road a mile south of Union City. The tanks held 5,000 gallons of gasoline.

John Watson, of Oil City, driver, was painfully burned about the face in an attempt to put out the fire with a hand extinguisher. Unable to check the flames, he crawled back into the cab, and drove the gasoline train into a ditch, where it was consumed. The fire burned for hours.

FOUR OFFICERS ON VACATIONS

force are enjoying their annual vacation of a week at the present
